What does it mean to be a community today? Who co-creates it, who has a place within it, and who remains on its margins? And what responsibility do we ourselves have in this?

Streetstival is a street-based youth work festival that creates space for meeting, sharing experiences, and critically reflecting on the issues that shape our work and our society. Through Streetstival, we aim to contribute to greater recognition of youth street work and to highlight its role in building relationships, support, and spaces for young people (and others), including where existing systems often fail to reach them.

This year's Streetstival focuses on COMMUNITY – its meaning, possibilities, and limitations in a time of social divisions, uncertainty, and rapid change.

Through different perspectives, we will explore questions of values, justice, inclusion, care, participation, marginalisation, and new forms of connection. We will also look at how communities are built in different spaces – from the street and local environments to the digital world – and what role young people, (street-based) youth work, and other actors play in this process.

Streetstival is not about finding simple answers. It is a space for asking questions, confronting different perspectives, and reflecting on what we can do differently. We understand community as something living and constantly changing – something that does not simply happen on its own, but is co-created every day through our relationships, decisions, and actions.

Without us, there is no community.

The question is: what kind of community do we want to (co-)create?

BREZ NAS NI SKUPNOSTI

15. oktober 2026, Dijaški dom Tabor, Ljubljana

Prijave zbiramo najkasneje do 9. oktobra 2026 in sicer na povezavi:
<https://forms.gle/7xqGNPoM7QBviUHq9>

Kaj danes pomeni biti skupnost? Kdo jo soustvarja, kdo ima v njej prostor in kdo ostaja na njenem robu? In kakšno odgovornost imamo pri tem sami?

Streetstival je festival mladinskega uličnega dela, ki odpira prostor za srečevanje, izmenjavo izkušenj in kritičen premislek o vprašanjih, ki zaznamujejo naše delo in družbo. Z njim želimo prispevati k večji prepoznavnosti mladinskega uličnega dela ter pokazati njegovo vlogo pri vzpostavljanju odnosov, podpore in prostorov za mlade (in druge) tudi tam, kjer jih obstoječi sistemi pogosto ne dosežejo.

Letošnji Streetstival, se osredotoča na SKUPNOST – na njen pomen, možnosti in omejitve v času družbenih delitev, negotovosti in hitrih sprememb.

Skozi različne perspektive bomo odpirali vprašanja vrednot, pravičnosti, vključevanja, skrbi, participacije, marginalizacije in novih oblik povezovanja. Pogledali bomo tudi, kako se skupnost gradi v različnih prostorih – od ulice in lokalnega okolja do digitalnega sveta – ter kakšno vlogo imajo pri tem mladi, mladinsko (ulično) delo in drugi akterji.

Streetstival ni namenjen iskanju enostavnih odgovorov. Je prostor za vprašanja, soočanje različnih pogledov in premislek o tem, kaj lahko naredimo drugače. Skupnost razumemo kot nekaj živega in spreminjajočega se – kot nekaj, kar se ne zgodi samo od sebe, temveč jo vsak dan soustvarjamo s svojimi odnosi, odločitvami in dejanji.

Brez nas ni skupnosti.

Vprašanje je, kakšno skupnost želimo (so)ustvarjati.
