

The iliad Group is immensely sad to announce the passing of Nicolas Jaeger, Deputy Chief Executive Officer

The iliad Group is devastated to announce that Nicolas Jaeger, the Group's CFO and Deputy Chief Executive Officer, passed away suddenly yesterday evening. We address our heartfelt condolences and support to his wife, Anne, his three children and all of his family.

Nicolas joined the iliad Group in 2007 as Head of Investor Relations and was subsequently appointed Group Treasurer in 2011. He became Chief Financial Officer in 2018 and then Deputy Chief Executive Officer in 2021. He was one of the driving forces behind our Group's growth, particularly internationally. He was also a member of the Boards of Directors of Millicom, TRM, IFT, and Play in Poland.

The executives and all the teams at the iliad Group wish to express their gratitude for Nicolas' unique and valued contribution to the Group's development.

Each and every one of us in France, Italy and Poland today pay tribute to the executive, colleague and friend that we have lost.

Xavier Niel, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Thomas Reynaud, CEO of the iliad Group, said: "We were stunned and devastated to learn about Nicolas' passing yesterday evening. He was kind, considerate, and principled and lived life to the fullest, driven by an incredible strength, energy and sense of creativity that inspired everyone around him. He was happy and free-spirited at Free and within the iliad Group as a whole. All of our thoughts are with his family and friends at such a tragic time."

About the iliad Group

Created in the early 1990s, the iliad Group is the inventor of the world's first triple-play box and has grown into a major European telecoms player, standing out for its innovative, straightforward and attractive offerings. The Group is the parent of Free in France, iliad in Italy and Play in Poland, has over 17,400 employees serving 47.8 million subscribers, and generated €9.0 billion in revenues in the last 12 months. In France, the Group is an integrated Fixed and Mobile Ultra-Fast Broadband operator and had 22.1 million retail subscribers at September 30, 2023 (14.8 million Mobile subscribers and 7.3 million Fixed-line subscribers). In Italy – where the Group launched its business in 2018 under the iliad brand, making it the country's fourth Mobile operator – the Group had over 13% market share and more than 10.6 million Mobile subscribers at September 30, 2023. In Poland, the Group became an integrated convergent operator following the acquisition of UPC Polska in 2022, and at September 30, 2023 had over 13.0 million Mobile subscribers and more than 2.0 million Fixed subscribers. The iliad Group is Europe's sixth-largest operator by number of retail Mobile subscribers (excluding M2M) and Fixed-line Internet.
